

*UPDATES

Ministry of Jesus: KARIS expanded its support for the Ministry of Jesus program in Togo, West Africa, to include the purchase of land for a training farm where visiting church leaders will receive pastoral training, as well as learning improved agricultural techniques to take back to their villages.

Capitol Hill Pregnancy Center: As the beneficiary to two successful KARIS Golf Tournaments, the Capitol Hill Pregnancy Center was able to expand its ministry reach. The funds provided by KARIS helped CHPC open a second facility, expand its "sonogram ministry" and provided support for overall operations.

Mission Outfitters: KARIS funded the purchase of a workshop and storage facility, which will also serve as the base of operations for Mission Outfitters, thereby greatly helping the ministry to provide clean water and toilets to impoverished communities in Peru.

NEW PARTNERS

CENTRAL UNION MISSION:

For over 135 years Central Union Mission has been a leader in helping the poor in Washington, D.C. In addition to its emergency shelter, which provides over 62,000 bed-nights each year, the Mission operates a holistic, Christ-centered transformation and workforce development program for men, provides benefits for veterans, helps people overcome addictions, operates a food and clothing distribution center providing food for over 4000 people each month, runs a camp for underprivileged children, and offers a ministry to families and senior citizens.

GREATER CHANGE:

Greater Change's mission is to educate and empower vulnerable women and children in northern Iraq to become change agents in their communities. Through its community center in the Yezidi displaced person's camp in northern Iraq/Kurdistan, the organization provides child-friendly spaces, English and Arabic language training, pregnancy well-being classes, art therapy and job training.

Compelled by our Christian faith, KARIS focuses on practical "mercy ministries" such as assisting the poor, the disenfranchised, widows, orphans, prisoners and aliens.

Freedom in Creation Mission, Uganda

Freedom in Creation is a Christian ministry in northern Uganda that works to bring healing to children forced into armed conflict and others impacted by the brutality of the so-called Lord's Resistance Army. The Mission empowers youth and women with art therapy and entrepreneurship education, enabling them to bring vital resources to their communities. The organization operates a sustainable farm, which provides food, income and learning/service opportunities. KARIS provided funding for a much-needed water system to support the farm and the Mission.

REPORTS

Our goal is to help those in need and reveal the love of Jesus to this world. We do not discriminate against nor deny support to projects based on faith orientation.

ASELSI Mission, Guatemala

KARIS expanded its support for ASELSI by funding two nurses to join a team supporting the ASELSI Mission in Chichicastenango, Guatemala. The visiting nurses provided training on current procedures and techniques to indigenous staff who run the Mission's medical center. The training was impactful and ASELSI invited them to return to continue the training with the financial support of KARIS. In addition, KARIS President Nick Giancola led a mission team that built housing for a single-mother and her two daughters. The team also provided food for local outreach programs.

KARIS enables donors to support a portfolio of carefully vetted and monitored projects at the local, regional and international levels. Notably 100% of every donation goes directly to supporting programs and projects around the world.
